BIOGRAPHY

Honored with the revered title of “Steinway Artist”, Vincent LARDERET has attracted international recognition for the exceptional intensity of his performances and his highly acclaimed recordings.

Praised as an “impressive pianist” (MusicWeb International, UK) for his “very lyrical playing” (Crescendo Magazine, Belgium) and his “multi-timbred” sound (Fanfare, USA), he “makes the piano equal to an orchestra” (Classica, France) with a wide range of “fascinating pianistic colors” (PIANO News, Germany). His very personal and deeply inspired interpretations are often compared to the piano legends such as Michelangeli, Pollini, Zimerman and Argerich. The MUSICA magazine in Italy hailed “the ghost of Claudio Arrau” while the Toronto Star in Canada described : “his playing is remarkable for its ease as well as style. Larderet overcomes with panache”. Nominated for the “International Classical Music Awards” and “Classical Revelation” by Adami winner at MIDEM in Cannes, he is considered as one of the leading French pianists of his generation.

Vincent Larderet's eclectic repertoire stretches from Scarlatti to Boulez, who played an important role in the romantic period, French music and during the 20th century. He also ardently favors lesser-performed composers such as Berg, Falla, Schmitt, Scriabin and Szymanowski. In 2007 he performed a series of recitals dedicated to Beethoven and especially distinguished himself with the “Hammerklavier” Opus 106 and Opus 111 Sonatas. He also participated in the complete live recording of Beethoven's 32 Sonatas, notably alongside Stephen Kovacevich for the prestigious DVD set released by Piano Passion. Internationally renowned as a Ravel specialist, he worked in Paris with Carlos Cebro who passed on to him the stylistic and musical tradition of Vlado Perlemuter and studied Ravel's works on Perlemuter's personal scores annotated during his collaboration with the composer. Mr Larderet is also used to performing both the 2 Ravel's Concertos during the same concert. He completed his training at the National Conservatory of Music in Rueil Malmaison where he won the “Virtuosity Prize” and perfected his art at Lübeck's Musikhochschule in Germany with the famous pianist Bruno-Leonardo Gelber. At the same time, Vincent was a prize-winner in several international piano competitions including Maria Canals in Barcelona, A.M.A. Calabria (in Italy under the jury chairman of Lazar Berman) and Brest. He was also laureate of the “Orpheum Foundation for the Advancement of Young Soloists” in Switzerland. When it comes to shaping his interpretations, he is committed to a musicological approach and he studies and analyzes Music history. He has written some essays including for the booklets of his own recordings.

His new album devoted to Debussy stands out as one of the recording events of 2018 in tribute to the centenary of the composer's death. "The decision to gather together Schumann, Scriabin, Ravel and Prokofiev in this recording isn't guided by the wish of delivering an anthology of works within a shared aesthetics. (...) Vincent's intention was to make the best of diversity in keyboard's approach. (...) In this way Etude, Prelude, Nocturne, Sonata, Waltz and Toccata live together in a spirited quest for the most original identity. They question forms that carry reaction forces and potentiality opened to the very renewal of music itself."

REVIEWS HIGHLIGHTS

CLAVIER COMPANION

"On this disc, one hears two masters at work : Debussy for harmony and style, and Larderet for flair and appeal."

Clavier Companion Magazine (USA) - July / August 2018 issue - Laura Melton

FANFARE

"Reviews in these pages of Larderet's previous work have been unanimously positive. Peter Burwasser recently (40:4) grouped him with Pollini, Brendel, and Badura-Skoda as 'masterful technicians and intellectual[s].' John Bell Young wrote (39:3) that Larderet 'has blossomed into a great pianist indeed.' And Colin Clarke (35:5) described his playing as 'gripping and multitimbred.' I will add that it is full of vivid colors, subtle rubato, and an equal affinity for the contemplative and the virtuosic aspects of Debussy's writing."

Fanfare Magazine (USA) N°41:5 - May / June 2018 issue - Myron Silberstein

THE RECORD GEIJUTSU

"It can be said that it is a wonderful performance combining playfulness and polished poetry."

The Record Geijutsu (Japan) - May 2018 issue

FONO FORUM

"Vincent Larderet, with his interpretation of the second Book of [Debussy's] Préludes in comparison with the youngest of the named 'old Master' [Krystian Zimerman], is almost on equal footing. The juxtaposition of individual voices and chords, the highly differentiated dynamics and the parallel play of colors require the interpreter to achieve a maximum in the areas of agogics and pedaling. Larderet possesses great subtlety in this regard."

Fono Forum (Germany) n°04 - 2018 / April 2018 issue - Gregor Willmes

MUSICA 5 STARS AWARD

"His Brahms has a huge tragic force for the depth of sound, breath phrasing, the density of speech and a lyrical, passionate, painful intensity. A great value CD on which the ghost of Claudio Arrau seems to appear in the background."

MUSICA 5 stars Award (Italy) n°283 - February 2017 issue - Luca Segalla

SCHERZO

"Larderet caresses you directly, soft and seductive."

Scherzo n°315 (Spain) - February 2016 - Santiago Martín Bermúdez

KLASSIK HEUTE "EMPFEHLUNG"

"I call it fascinating because it's the only relevant performance for me which can exist without restriction alongside the reference recordings of Michelangeli (Concerto in G) in 1957 and Zimerman (both concertos) in 1994."

Klassik Heute "Empfehlung" (Germany) - December 2015, Christof Jetzschke

GRAMOPHONE (UK)

"There is a lot to admire about the ARS [Larderet-Kawka] versions."

Gramophone (UK) - November 2015 - Jeremy Nicholas

TÉLÉRAMA ffff

"Debussy used to be suavely ironic about the art of Ravel, "a fakir that grows flowers around a chair". Vincent Larderet grows landscapes around his piano, as a true Ravelian magician."

Télérama ffff Award n°3353 (France) - April 2014 - Gilles Macassar

PIZZICATO "SUPERSONIC"

"In this Ravel program, French pianist Vincent Larderet signs very personal, almost visually shaped performances, deeply expressive and atmospheric as well."

Pizzicato "SUPERSONIC" Award (Luxemburg) - March 2014 - Remy Franck

CRESCENDO MAGAZINE

"Vincent Larderet has a very lyrical playing (...) and sometimes focuses on things that others completely ignore. We're dealing with a clever pianist there."

Crescendo Magazine (Belgium) - August 2013

CLASSICA "CHOC"

"He makes the piano compare to an orchestra, and let us wonders whether he hasn't got some third hand available. It's understandable that he holds us spellbound from the first to the very last measure, expressing all the expected sensuality, mystery and demonic frenzy."

Classica "CHOC" Award n°131 (France) - April 2011 - Michel Fleury

TORONTO STAR

"Larderet overcomes with panache. His playing is remarkable for its ease as well as style."
